

Top Ten List for Better, Easier Research

Use world class content print and electronic

7 million volumes, 26,000 electronic journals

www.library.cornell.edu/englib

ENGRanswers@cornell.edu

Use or borrow computing resources -

4 classrooms - 130 computers, 10 laptops

Find the most relevant Information:

in research databases, such as INSPEC, Compendex, IEEExplore, and Web of Science

Get library help at Duffield

Research Connection @ Duffield

Improve information
discovery techniques:

one-on-one, small and large group instruction in classrooms

Ask research questions

for "just-in-time" information via Chat, email or phone

Get help where you need it:

 Librarians
Librarians make office visits.

Expand the audience for your research - post papers on DSpace

Cornell's open access repository, dspace.library.cornell.edu

Receive scanned articles and tables
of contents

with MyDocument Delivery and My Contents

Manage your footnotes and bibliographies

with RefWorks